FREE MARKET, an event to minister to the one-hundred poorest families in Douglas County, will be held on Saturday, May 1 from 8 a.m.-12 p.m. at Wellspring Bible Fellowship. DCEF is partnering with Douglas County Social Services, who will help screen persons to receive vouchers. To date 12 churches have agreed to partner together with the hope of 20 total churches. Craig Schlesinger is challenging each family in his congregation to donate at least one thing of value that will cost them something. A list of needed items is to be put together by DCSS and will be distributed to churches (such as beds, dressers, cleaning supplies, vacuums, etc.). An idea was suggested to prepare a “bucket brigade” of 100 identical buckets filled with cleaning supplies. Joe Whipple will contact his sources at the Salvation Army as they provide similar items to disaster victims. In addition to the distribution of items, prayer teams, food teams and transportation teams will also be needed. If you are interested in being part of the pastoral steering team for this event, please see Craig.

DCEF 2.0 – a monthly meeting of area youth pastors/leaders has been meeting under the auspices of DCEF. Each month a different church provides the meeting space and a meal and a local pastor provides a leadership lesson. If interested in hosting or presenting the leadership lesson, please see Craig.

GUTS: ROSEBURG MEN'S CONFERENCE will be this weekend (February 26-27) at Garden Valley Christian Assembly. Attendance of 400-500 men is being planned for. The group had a time of PRAYER for the event. Steve Riggle, pastor in Houston, Texas, will be the keynote speaker on Friday night. Breakout sessions on Saturday will be presented by Jon Nutter, Ron Leager, Dave York and Ed Staton (Battle Ground, WA).

MEETING SCHEDULE:

- Thursday, March 18 at Garden Valley Christian Assembly
- Thursday, April 15 at Roseburg Christian Fellowship
- Thursday, May 27 at Roseburg Alliance Church

Respectfully submitted,

Steve Kufeldt
